FRIDAY EVENING, JANUATY 15.

For this sec ion s o 7, followed by clearing, THE PHILLIPS TRIAL -At ten o'clock was besieged by a crowd as dense as that of yesterday to witness the trial of Jeff Pallips for the minder of Geo. S. Smith.

Pallips was placed in the dock at ten Clotck, and the panel accepted yesterday was called, though the six answered to their names, Marker, Jac Eveleth, E.E. Padgett and the ever, arrived a law mindres later, as did ever, arrived a law mindres later, as did also E.H. Bell. E.E. Padgett was unable to attend by reason of sickness.

Dyson had formed an opinion, but could give the prisoner a trial according to the evidence; he had no prejudice against the accused, but had a liking for the victim of the tragedy. M. Hansahan had formed an opinion as positive that he could not give the prisoner an impartial trial. I W. Radd had formed a most decided crision and etailor hous. the prisoner an imparital trial. I W. Redd bad formed a most decided epialon and couldn't give the prisoner a fair trial, being, he said, a man of strong prejudice. W. H. Ackneon, while baying formed an opinion, believed he could give the prisoner a trial according to the law and evidence. according to the law and evidence. S. Q. Boush had his doub's whether he could cive the prisoner an impartial hearing. L. Shumen had no decided opinion of the case and would not correctentiously on the jury F. L. Van Acken had formed some decided opinion of enddry matters connected with the tragedy. He could not say, however. that he was positive in his conviction in all the leatures of the tragedy; he had no prejudice against the prisoner. F. M. Adams judice against the prisoner. F. M. Adams and often expressed positive, decided opinions as to the guilt of the accused and wouldn't say he was prepered to give him an imparial trist. W. R. Z mmerman returned like answers to the interregations, as did, also J. R. B. ucc, Thomas Hiy and A. A. Wattiert. Theodore Chase had arrived at no positive conclusion and could actualised. Geo. H. Hinken had formed as Geo. H. Hinken bad formed an opinion and it would require strong evidence to remove; J. H. Manifield was ordered to stand up, and in answer o the first question replied that he was exempt from jury tervice, having been an active fire man twenty-eight years. O. B Hopkins

Mesers. L. Shuman, Char. Marshall, T. L. Carrer, James Eveleth, Francis Deston, O. Hopkirs, W. H. A. kluson, John Fi zgeraid, H. Alcheson, E. H. B. II, J. M. Peake, Hugo Herfurth and John R. Jasper, who had been virtually accepted as jurymen, were in their places in front of the Judge's desk. Taco dore Chase, however, who had also been relained, failed to speece, and Judge Norton. tained, failed to appear, and Judge Norton dispatched a messanger for him, and in a few minutes he spreared in court.

J. Quinn had formed the usual opinio the case from the newspaper reports and casual observations. His convictions were of such a nature that he could not be an im partial juror. Joseph Bodgers had formed similar opinions from which he didn't think he could be moved. Justus Schneider dida'. think he would prove a fi: juryman from the fact that he had known the prisoner from his infancy and would be inclined to sympathize with him; therefore, he could not do the Commonwealth justice. | Mr Burke, after interrogating Mr. 8, said be was a competent juryman, but the judge excused him, to which ruling an excep ion was taken. E E Graham had a positive opin ion of the affair and had so expressed him-

J. R. N. Cartin had formed no opinion, and could give Phil ips a fair and impartial trial. R. M. Graham was disqualified for a juryman from the fact that le bad forme? an opinion and was prejudiged. Rober Grimes's decided and positive opinion al-o incapact : ed him for jury service. At or waiting about half an hour Wm. Darley, je. was brought in; he, too, had formed a p.si-tive ordaion from which he could not be removed; hence be was tild to s'and seide. Fifteen men so fer hud toin retained, aid again were summons sent out for others, and another long interval followed, at h end of which J ha Henshaw was produced He, in answer t the usual questions, proved to be an incompet at juryman from his pre-viously formed opinions and bias.

At 4:30 o'clock the jory was completed by the acceptance of Millard Padgett and W.H. Davis, exception having been taken to J. M.
